SIR,

Payment of the tasdik amount of the Mysore State Charities at Benares.

I have the honor to state that the tasdik grant of the Charities was being remitted to the Agent in advance once every quarter by this office on bills pre-audited by the Comptroller to Government. As this procedure involved heavy postal charges and threw considerable responsibility on this office and also occasional delay, arrangements have now been made in consultation with the Comptroller for monthly payments in accordance with the sanctioned scale to the Agent through the Imperial Bank of India, Ltd., Benares Branch. The changed procedure necessitates that the Agent should have a permanent imprest with him to make cash purchases and to meet any unforseen expenses and to run the Chattram till he draws the monthly allotment from the Bank under the Comptroller's authority. I recommend therefore that the Agent may be allowed a permanent advance of Rs.100/- to be recouped from monthly bills.

It may be mentioned here that the Peshkar of the Tirupati Charities is allowed a Permanent Advance of Rs.300/- for the purpose.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.
